REPUBLICAN PARTY STANDARD BEARERS

ROOSEVELT AND FAIRBANKS ARE NOMINATED

Ex-Governor Black Starts Enthusiasm by His Eulogy of the President--Senator Dolliver Presented Name of Fairbanks For Vice President.

NOMINATION OF BOTH UNANIMOUS

Chicago, June 23.—The swift and sure current of public opinion for the second time in the history of Republican conventions to day resulted in the selection of a national ticket without a dissenting vote. Theodore Roosevelt for president and Charles W. Fairbanks for vice president received every vote in the convention.

Regardless of the fact that the nomination of one had been assured for months and the other for days, the announcement of the choice was accompanied by a resounding demonstration which attested the candidates' universal popularity. The cheering was led by figures known through the length and breadth of the land and echoed by the mighty throng of enthusiastic men and radiant women assembled in the Coliseum under the crowning feature as well as the close of the national convention that marks the semi-centennial of the Republican party in the United States.

No less than 10,000 men and women participated in the ratification of the party program and the consequent roar of cheering and handclapping was deafening. The band, stationed high among the girders, was drowned by the tumultuous, unbounded demonstration. Hats were tossed in the air, state emblems waved and flags—beautiful in colored shimmering silken flags—fluttered from every hand as though stirred by a gale.

When Governor Black, of New York, made his speech nominating Roosevelt the delegates in the Republican convention proved that there is no absence of enthusiasm when the occasion justifies the exhibition of that quality. For twenty-five minutes the great throng told its approbation of the convention's choice for president. The name of Roosevelt came from every throat. The New York delegates paraded the hall shouting at the tops of their voices. Other delegations joined the procession and the well ordered body of half an hour before was a shifting mass, every semblance of organization gone.

CANNON WAVED OLD FLAG. While the demonstration was at its height, Chairman Cannon stepped to the front of the stage. He held in his hand the banner which was waved in 1860, when Lincoln was nominated and which has been used in every convention since. The flag showed the wear and tear of many similar contests. "Uncle Joe" waved it vigorously and kept time with his body. Soon the whole convention was swaying in exact measure. The chairman tired and his place was taken by a young man, who grasped the flag staff firmly in one hand and with a megaphone led the yelling. He started the call, "Roosevelt, Roosevelt, Roosevelt," repeated over and over again with the system of a colleg yell. It was taken up by the throng and the cry of "Roosevelt" rolled over the hall in a volume so great and so terrific that the screeching of a hundred steam whistles would have been dwarfed in comparison.

The delegates in their eagerness to exhibit approval of the nomination accepted every signal for renewed cheering. A little colored boy from Georgia, and later a pretty little girl, dressed in a dainty frock of white, were lifted to the platform and they waved flags with as much vigor as their more lusty preceptors.

At the conclusion of every second vote the performance was repeated and the speakers themselves were generously applauded. When Fairbanks had been nominated for vice president there was no diminution in the demonstration. Voices were hoarse, but the noise for the choice was as unanimous as it was in filling the first place on the ticket.

HALL FILLED. When the convention was called to order to day the galleries were filled for the first time. Tiers of people were standing in the aisles and back of the rows of seats. It was known the popular feature of the convention—the making of nominations—was the program of the day. The attendance was flattering to the orators chosen to present the names. It was known yesterday that no contest of any character would develop. As surely as Roosevelt was the choice for the first place on the ticket, Senator Fairbanks was wanted as his running mate.

It was 10:30 when Speaker Cannon called the convention to order. Without preliminaries of any kind he announced the order of the day and instructed the secretary to call the roll for nominations for president. By agreement, Alabama, the first state on the roll, yielded to New York. That was the signal for the first outburst of applause. In the midst of the cheering former Governor Black made his way to the platform. Speaker Cannon introduced him. The delegates, knowing his mission, gave him a rousing reception.

Black led up to the nomination gradually by defining the type of man best suited for the party color bearer. As he named Theodore Roosevelt as the best example of that type the convention rose. The New York delegation led in the cheering, which almost immediately spread to every part of the floor, to the galleries and to the crowds which filled the entrances and overflowed into the streets.

After the crowd had yelled itself hoarse it permitted the band to participate in the demonstration. The leader chose patriotic music and the familiar words were taken up by the convention and sung with earnestness. The band changed into ragtime and the convention found cheering was better timed to the music. There was a pause in the enthusiasm. Several times Speaker Cannon lifted his hands for order. The crowd thought he was leading the applause and paid no attention.

When from sheer exhaustion the throng lessened its tumult Speaker Cannon found his opportunity and when he had gained attention he announced that the flag he had been waving was sacred to the party as the national emblem waved when Lincoln was the choice of the first Republican convention. His speech caused another outburst in honor of the flag.

SECONDING SPEECHES. Senator Beveridge was recognized for the purpose of seconding the nomination of Roosevelt for president. He was followed by George A. Knight of California. Knight has a voice which fairly thundered through the hall. He opened his speech by a statement concerning the broad expanse of Republican harmony. "Geography," he roared, and some one at the extreme end of the hall shouted in response: "Not so loud." The convention laughed at Knight. The orator from the Golden Gate city had the convention with him from the first. His speech was pointed and Knight proved himself a maker of phrases. Of the canal and the reasons actuating the administration in taking the policy it did, Knight, in conclusion, said of President Roosevelt: "He wanted to give a job to Uncle Sam. Uncle Sam wanted the job and he took it. Uncle Sam belongs to the union."

The California delegates started a parade around the convention hall at the close of Knight's speech, but Speaker Cannon wanted to get on with the business. Accordingly, as soon as he could make himself heard, he recognized the next speaker.

Seconding speeches following Knight's were made by Harry Stillwell Edwards of Georgia, ex-Governor Bradley of Kentucky, Joseph B. Colton of Minnesota and Harry S. Cummings of Maryland. Cummings is one of the colored delegates and told of the colored man's service to the Republican party and his interest in President Roosevelt.

The roll was called and the unanimous vote of the delegates recorded for Roosevelt without incident until the name of New Jersey was reached. New Jersey asked unanimous consent that the roll be dispensed with and the secretary be instructed to cast the entire vote for Roosevelt. Objection was general and every state accepted the opportunity of casting its entire vote for the president.

Pandemonium broke loose again when Speaker Cannon announced that there were 994 votes and 994 had been cast for Roosevelt. The great picture of the president was carried about the hall. It was followed by the banner carried by the Oregon delegation, bearing the words: "First gun, Oregon 23,804, Roosevelt. Forty per cent Republican gain."

FOR VICE PRESIDENT. Alabama again yielded its place at the head of the list when the roll call was started for nominations for vice president. The rank was this time given to Iowa and Senator Dolliver, taking the platform, named Fairbanks. The speech was an eloquent endorsement of the candidate's qualifications and was received with tremendous applause. Seconding speeches were made by Senator Dewey, Senator Foraker, Governor Pennypacker of Pennsylvania and former Senator Carter of Montana. All were applauded to the echo and the great popular demonstration which greeted the unanimous nomination by the convention was an enthusiastic tribute to the Indian statesman whose name was thus joined with Roosevelt.

When Illinois, Nebraska, Missouri and Georgia were called the announcement was made that the candidates of the favorite sons had been withdrawn. The entire vote therefore was cast for Fairbanks.

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS. The usual resolutions of thanks to the officers of the convention and to the committee on arrangement were adopted and the great body was adjourned. Speaker Cannon came in for one of the resolutions and he blushed like a school boy as the word bouquet was given him. He made eleven speeches during the day, each a free crisp original sentence, introducing eleven orators. His audience never tired of watching or hearing him. His jerky walk to and from the peninsula of the rostrum that projected into the audience amused every one. He kept tight hold on the right hand of each speaker with his right hand and swung the gavel in his left. The wide sweep of the heavy mallet rather terrified the members of the press who were within range, for sometimes their heads escaped by not more than an inch. Cannon's control of the convention was complete.

BLACK'S SPEECH

Ex-Governor Black in nominating Roosevelt for president spoke as follows: Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Convention: We are here to inaugurate a campaign which seems already to be equipped, closed. So wisely have the people sowed and watched and tended, there seems little now to do but to measure up the grain. They are ranging themselves not for battle but for harvest. In one column reaching from the Maine woods to the Puget sound are those people and those states which have stood so long together that when great emergencies arise the nation turns instinctively to them. In this column, vast and solid, is a majority so overwhelming that the scattered squads in opposition can hardly raise another army. The enemy has neither guns nor ammunition and if they had they would use them on each other. Destitute of the weapons of effective warfare, the only evidence of approaching battle is in the tone and number of their halloos. There is discord among the generals; discord among the soldiers. Each would fight in his own way, but before assaulting his Republican adversaries he would first destroy his own comrades by the use of his own sword. Whatever fatalities may occur, however, among the discordant hosts now moving on St. Louis, no harm will come this fall to the American people. There will be no opposition sufficient to raise a question. There are no Democratic plans for the conduct of the fall campaign. Their zeal is chiefly centered in discussion as to what Thomas Jefferson would have done if he were living. He is not living and few of his descendants are among the Democratic remnants of to day. Whatever of patriotism or wisdom emanated from that distinguished man is now represented in this convention.

It is a sad day for any party when its only means of solving living issues is by guessing at the possible attitude of a statesman who is dead. This condition leaves that party always a beginner and makes every question new. The Democratic party has seldom tried a problem on its own account and when it has, it has been a failure. Its only monuments, its courage is remembered only in regret. As long as these things are recalled that party may serve as ballast, but it will never steer the ship of state.

When all the people have forgotten will dawn a golden era for this new Democracy. But the country is not ready yet to place a party in the lead whose most experienced motto is "cheese." "You get it." That motto may express contrition, but it does not inspire hope. Neither confidence nor enthusiasm will ever be aroused by any party which enters each campaign uttering the language of the mourner.

There is one fundamental plank, however, on which the two great parties are in full agreement. Both believe in the equality of men. The difference is that the Democratic party would make every man as low as the poorest, while the Republican party would make every man as high as the best. But the Democratic course will prove no outside interference now, for the Republican motto is that of the great commander, "never interrupt the enemy while he is making a mistake." In politics as in other fields the most impressive arguments spring from contrast. Never has there been a more striking example of unity than is now afforded by this assembly. You are gathered here not as factions torn by discordant views, but moved by one desire and intent, you have come as the chosen representatives of the most enlightened party in the world. You meet not as strangers, for no men are strangers who hold the same beliefs and espouse the same cause. You may separate two bodies of water for a thousand years, but when once the barrier is removed they mingle instantly and are one. The same traditions inspire and the same purposes actuate us all. Never in our lives did the purposes stand with deeper root than now. At least two generations have passed away since the origin of that great movement from which sprang the spirit which has been the leading impulse in American politics for half a century. In that movement, which was both a creation and an example, were those great characters which endowed the Republican party at its birth with the attributes of justice, equality and progress, which have held it to this hour in line with the highest sentiments of mankind. From these men we have inherited the desire and to their memory owe the resolution that these great schemes of government and humanity, inspired by their patriotism, and established by their blood, shall remain as the fixed and permanent emblem of their labors and the abiding ideal of the liberty and progress of the race.

There are many new issues in these days, but the Republican party needs no new title. It stands now where it stood at the beginning. Memory alone is needed to tell the source from which the inspirations of the country flow. A drowsy memory would be as guilty now as a sleeping watchman when the enemy is near. The name of the Republican party stands over every door where a righteous cause was born. Its members have gathered around every movement, no matter how weak, if inspired by high resolves, its flag for more than fifty years has been the sign of hope on every spot where liberty was the word. That party needs no new name or platform to designate its purposes. It is now as at the start, equal, militant and in motion. The problems of every age that are met, solve. Great causes impose great demands, but never in any enterprise have the American people failed and never in any crisis has the Republican party failed to express the conscience and intelligence of that people.

The public mind is awake both to its opportunities and its dangers. No other in the world, in any era, did citizenship mean more than it means to day in America. Men of courage and sturdy character are ranging themselves together with a unanimity seldom seen. There is no excuse for groping in the dark, for the light is plain to him who will but raise his eyes. The American people believe in a man or party that has convictions and knows why. They believe that what experience has proved it is idle to resist. A wise man is any fool about to die. But there is a wisdom which with good fortune may guide the young and the strong. That wisdom springs from reason, observation and experience. Guided by these things is plain and young men may rely upon it, that the history and purposes of this country are in the essence and aspirations of patriotism, and their best concrete example in the career and doctrines of the Republican party. But not alone upon the principles of the party are its members in accord. With the same devotion which has marked their adherence to those principles, magnificent and enduring as they are, they have already singled out the man to bear the burden of leading the way. No higher badge was ever yet conferred. But great as the honor is, the circumstances which surround it make that honor even more unexpected. You have come from every state and territory in this vast domain. The country and the town have vied with each other in sending here their contributions to this splendid throng. Every highway in the land is leading here and crowded with the members of that great party which sees in this splendid city the symbol of its rise and power. Within this unexampled multitude is every rank and condition of free men, every creed and occupation. But to day a common purpose and desire have engaged us all, and from every nook and corner of the country, less but a single choice to fill the most exalted office in the world. He is no stranger waiting in the shade to be called suddenly into public light. The American people have seen him for many years and always where the light was thickest and the greatest need was felt. He has been alike conspicuous in the pursuits of peace and in the arduous stress of war. No man now living will forget the speech he made at the close of the Spanish war, when the American mind was so inflamed and American patriotism so aroused; when among all the eager citizens surging to the front as soldiers, the man whom this convention in its decision to lead in the war among the first to bear the call and answer to his name. Preferring peace but not afraid of war; faithful to every private obligation, yet first to volunteer at the side of native and foreign in the civil life and yet so quick to comprehend the arts of war that he grew almost in a day to meet the high exactions of command. There is nothing which so tests a man as great and unexpected danger. He may pass his life amid ordinary scenes and what he is or does but few will ever know. But when the crash comes or the flower breaks out, a moment's time will stage out the hero in the crowd. A flash of lightning in the night will reveal what years of daylight have not discovered to the eye. And so the flash of the Spanish war revealed that lofty courage and de-

NEWS RECEIVED BY ROOSEVELT

SURROUNDED BY MEMBERS OF FAMILY

Appeared the Most Unconcerned of All When Informed of His Nomination—Congratulated by Numerous Friends.

Washington, June 23.—Surrounded by the members of his family President Roosevelt received the announcement that he had been nominated unanimously by the Republicans assembled at Chicago for the presidency. The news was received by telephone at the white house by a representative of the Associated Press in advance of its receipt over the special telegraph wire running from Chicago to the executive offices. At 2:13 p. m. the bulletin was given Secretary Loch.

Some time before the president had left his offices in the executive building and gone to the white house for luncheon. Secretary Loch immediately conveyed the news to him there. Seated on the southern veranda of the white house, the favorite resort of the president on a warm day or evening, chatting with Mrs. Roosevelt, his sister-in-law, Miss Carey, and other members of his family, the president received Loch's important announcement. President Roosevelt rose from his chair to receive the affectionate congratulations of those about him. He was the most unconcerned, seemingly, of all. He chatted animatedly a few minutes with Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Carey and Mr. Loch and then accompanied his secretary to the executive office.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

Outward indications that Theodore Roosevelt was about to be chosen unanimously as the standard bearer of his party absolutely were lacking at the white house in the morning. The president appeared at his desk at the usual hour and began immediately the transaction of routine executive business with Secretary Loch, important subjects were disposed of, he received several visitors for whom engagements had been made. No members of his cabinet called during the early hours of the business day. The president was kept in close touch with the situation at Chicago through the press bulletins and private messages from the convention hall, which were received over the special wire at the white house. On his return to the executive offices, after he had been informed of his nomination, President Roosevelt greeted cordially a number of newspaper men. He expressed his pleasure at receiving the warm congratulations of those who, in the performance of their duties, are kept constantly in touch with the president and his work. Sitting tilted back in the big arm chair at his desk, the president chatted freely and frankly with those about him. All were his personal friends and the president realized perfectly that the little confidence of the "executive session," as he himself termed it, would be held as inviolable. He talked and acted, not as the president of the United States; not as the standard bearer of a great political party, but as Theodore Roosevelt, the man and friend. With genial raillery he chatted with one; exchanged comments on men or things with another; laughed heartily at a cartoon of himself to which his attention was drawn; sketched in a free-hand way incidents of the convention; recalled some interesting situations, personal and political, and, in conclusion, again thanked his friends for expressions of their congratulations.

NEW CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE

HONOR CONFERRED UPON GEORGE B. CORTELYOU

Secretary of Commerce and Labor, Chosen to Head Republican National Committee—Other Officers Chosen.

Chicago, June 23.—George B. Cortelyou was chosen chairman of the Republican national committee to day at a meeting held after adjournment of the convention in thanking the members of the committee for the honor, he told the members that while he would be glad to have the benefit of their advice and counsel, he intended to be chairman in fact and would accept no delegation from any one, high or low. He told them the friends of the late chairman, Mr. Hanna, were his friends and he asked for the same measure of confidence and support that had been given to the last chairman. In conclusion he sought the advice of both old and new members.

Cortelyou made no formal statement of his plans. He resigned as secretary of commerce and labor as soon as he was elected chairman, the resignation to take effect as soon as his successor qualifies, which will be about July 1. Cortelyou will not give any active time to political matters until he retires from the cabinet. No vice chairman will be appointed and the new chairman will divide his time between the New York and Chicago headquarters, although some member of the committee will no doubt be designated to take charge of the headquarters in this city. Headquarters will not be opened in either city until the last part of July. Meanwhile Cortelyou expects to select his executive committee and make preliminary arrangements for the campaign.

As soon as the committee was called to order Postmaster General Payne in a complimentary speech nominated Cortelyou for chairman and his election was without a dissenting voice. Clayton of Arkansas, Murphy of New Jersey and Yerkes of Kentucky were appointed a committee to notify the new chairman and bring him before the committee. After Cortelyou's remarks Blinn of Ohio, who was named secretary by Senator Scott of Connecticut, N. Bliss, New York, for treasurer by Governor Murphy, William P. Lane, Maryland, for sergeant-at-arms by Senator McCombs. All those officers were unanimously re-elected.

A resolution was passed authorizing the chairman to appoint an executive committee of nine, with such other officers as are necessary for the management of the campaign. The chairman, secretary, treasurer and sergeant-at-arms are to be officers of the executive committee. Under this resolution the chairman is given absolute power in the conduct of the campaign.

The vacancy in the committee from Louisiana was left to the chairman to fill. The delegation from that state is undecided and could not choose a member.

A resolution of thanks was voted to the old committee and the committee adjourned to meet upon call of the chairman.

Cortelyou lunched with the committee at the Coliseum after adjournment and in the evening he was in constant conference with party leaders in his rooms at the Chicago club. Many suggestions were made to him concerning the selection of the executive committee and other matters concerning the coming campaign. He listened to all, saying he would give them attention when he relinquished his duties as member of the cabinet.

KILLED IN WRECK. Madrid, June 23.—Thirty persons were killed last night in a train wreck in the province of Teruel, one of the most mountainous in Spain and abounding in torrents. The train was derailed on a bridge over the Jiloca river and the coaches burned.

WAR REPORTS. Chee Foo, June 23.—It is reported here the Japanese made a determined attack upon Port Arthur by land and sea yesterday, June 22; also during the night. The rumors are not confirmed.

SPECIAL DAY FOR BOYS

Set Apart by the St. Louis Exposition Management—July 5th, the Day Selected.

The St. Louis exposition management wisely determined to recognize American boys by setting apart a special day for them at the exposition. The day selected is July 5th, and the program and arrangements for the day are in the hands of William C. Sprague, editor of the American Boy, of Detroit. The program includes athletic contests in the stadium between the boys of the public schools, in which public school teams are entered from Chicago, New York and other cities, and opportunities will be given for individual entries. From 2:30 to 4:30 in the afternoon public exercises will be held in festival hall, the central attraction of the grounds. It is expected that three thousand boys will take part in a unique program, consisting of orations, recitations, music, etc., by talented boys from various parts of the country, the reading of messages from President Roosevelt and the governors of all the states and territories, music by one of the exposition bands, and by Prof. H. B. Koney, who will preside at the great organ, the largest in the world. Three thousand boys will be heard in chorus singing patriotic songs. There will be an address of welcome by President Francis, a response by an 11-year-old boy and a salute of the flag. Prizes will be awarded to boys competing in the contest for the best poem on the subject, "The American Boy," and the best song that can be sung to the tune "America." At 4:30 o'clock the boys will form in procession and march to the Pennsylvania building, where they will pay their respects to the old liberty bell, and an 10-year-old boy will crown the bell with a floral offering on behalf of the boys of America. At 5:30 o'clock a reception will be given the boys in the Michigan building. It is fair to say that every boy in the country who can be at the fair on July 5th will try to be there, as the occasion will be one long to be remembered.

TAKE A VACATION.

Orison Sweet Marden, in the July Success, says: No man or woman can work every day, year in and year out, with no change, no variety in his life, without either getting into a rut which will paralyze his finest and best faculties, or breaking down altogether and committing suicide on years of precious life.

A great many people, especially in cities, fail, lose their health, and become mere apologetics of the men and women they might be if they knew how to take care of themselves—if they were wise enough to take a vacation when the need is. But they voluntarily cut themselves off, year after year, from the great source of power—nature. They do not drink from the fountain of vitality and eternal youth and energy in which the earth is constantly renewing itself. Buried in schemes of ambition, of self-aggrandizement, in dreams of wealth and power and fame, they grind away in an environment of bricks and mortar, in the stifling, changeless atmosphere of the city, until they become nervous, worn-out wrecks. They do not see the necessity of change; they do not believe in taking a vacation; they laugh at the idea of giving up their work and going away to idle in the country, as they put it, until it is too late. Many of these ceaseless toilers are living on their nerves, trying all sorts of patent medicines, massage treatments and other artificial remedies, in the hope of regaining health and strength. But they find these things very poor substitutes for the recreating rejuvenating forces of the country.

How much money would you give a physician if he would guarantee you strong, steady, healthy faculties instead of nervous, exhausted ones; if he could restore elasticity to your lagging footsteps; if he could give you firm, vigorous muscles instead of weak, flabby ones; if he could put new courage and hope into your life; if he could, by some magic, take away the fretful, nervous irritability which makes you so unhappy, and restore you to your usual cool, calm, collected, cheerful demeanor? You would not stop at any price you could afford to pay. Yet you can do all this yourself, if you will only drop everything and fly to the country for rest and change and complete emancipation from business cares.

HOLINESS ASSOCIATION

Annual Encampment Will Be Held in Springfield at the State Fair Grounds in August.

Springfield, June 23.—L. B. Kent, of Jacksonville, president of the Illinois Holiness association, was in the city Wednesday conferring with the local committee who has in charge the holding of the annual encampment of the association at the fair grounds in this city. The arrangements for holding the meeting this year have been practically completed. The camp meeting will be held at the state fair grounds in machinery hall August 4-14. At the meeting here last year it was decided to affiliate the state association with the National Holiness association and that organization will have charge of the camp this year. The Illinois general annual meeting will be held from August 6 to 13 in connection with the camp meeting.

C. J. Fowler, Massachusetts, president of the national association, will be here and will lead the meetings. The singing and organ service will be in charge of Prof. C. E. Rowley and wife of Toledo, Ohio. A number of prominent ministers will be here and assist in the meetings.

The meeting held in machinery hall last year was a great success and the local committee is confident that the meeting this year will be the most successful yet held. The fact that it has been placed in the hands of the National Holiness association, the committee thinks, assures its success.

The Illinois Holiness association has been holding its annual camp meetings here for some time and its affiliation with the national association will not interfere with the place of meeting. Everything was arranged at the committee meeting this morning with the exception of a few minor details. One of the things that the committee is working on now is the securing of reduced rates on the railroads during the meeting. It is believed that there will be no trouble in this and that the number of visitors will be large. Thomas Mason of this city is secretary of the Illinois association.

NEW HEAD FOR UNIVERSITY.

Urbana, Ill., June 23.—Dr. Joseph Swain, head of Swarthmore college, who will probably be selected to succeed Doctor Draper as president of the University of Illinois, will begin his duties at the beginning of the next school year. His election to the post, which Doctor Draper recently resigned to take a position as head of the New York city schools, will be confirmed by the trustees within a few days. Dr. Swain has long been identified with educational affairs in this country.

LOYAL AMERICANS.

Springfield, June 22.—The supreme executive council of the Loyal Americans has not yet called a special session of the national congress of the order as demanded by the local lodges of the order. The committee spent its time to day in auditing bills and will take up the other matter to night. Lieutenant Governor Northcott, who is the attorney for the local lodges, said to day that if the council did not call the special session the local lodges would take it in hand themselves as was agreed at the mass meeting held Monday night.

WAS WASTING AWAY.

The following letter from Robert R. Watts, of Salem, Mo., is instructive: "I have been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years. I lost flesh and never felt well and doctored with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am now sound and well." Sold by J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

EYELESS CHICKEN.

Mrs. Sam Lee, Jr., of North Diamond street, has quite a curiosity in the form of an eyeless chicken. The eyes are entirely lacking, there being no trace of them. The ears are situated where the eyes should be. The fowl is now a week old and is apparently as healthy as a normal chick. It is fed by hand.

LARGE OFFERING.

The Children's day offering by the Christian church Sunday school this year was the largest in its history, being $112. The name of each one who gave ten cents or more goes on a quilt being prepared by Mrs. George Huffer, of Berlin. C. L. DePew is the efficient superintendent.

No good health unless the kidneys are sound. Foley's Kidney Cure makes the kidneys right. Sold by J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

ADVERTISEMENT OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

By virtue of an order and decree of the county court of Morgan county, Illinois, made on the petition of the undersigned executor of the estate of Herbert G. Whitlock, deceased, for leave to sell real estate of said deceased at the June term, A. D. 1904, of said court, to wit: On the 14th day of June, 1904, I shall, on the 30th day of July, 1904, between the hours of 10 o'clock in the forenoon and 5 o'clock in the afternoon of said day sell at public sale, at the south door of the court house in said county the real estate described as follows, to wit:

Lot one (1), in Chambers' first addition to the town (now city) of Jacksonville, in Morgan county, Ill., on the following terms, to wit: Cash in hand upon the tender of a proper executor's deed; the purchaser to assume the tax of 1904 payable in 1905, and to have possession of the property on Aug. 17, 1904.

Dated this 21st day of June, A. D. 1904.
John N. Haingrove,
Executor of the Estate of Herbert G. Whitlock, Deceased.

PEOPLE'S PARTY

Will Hold National Convention in Springfield July 4.

Springfield, June 23.—This city will next entertain the national convention of the People's party, which will assemble July 4. Many prominent men will be present, and the representation is expected to be from 800 to 1,000, possibly more, besides others, not delegates, who are interested in the work.

So far two men are being most prominently talked of in connection with the presidential nomination. They are Hon. Thomas E. Watson, of Georgia, and Hon. Samuel W. Williams, of Vincennes, Ind. It is also understood that Iowa will advance the name of Hon. L. H. Weller, of that state. The impression of local members of the party is that the ticket will be Watson and Williams. The national chairman, Mr. Parker, of Kentucky, is spoken of in connection with the vice presidency, as is former Senator Allen, of Nebraska, and John W. Bradin, of Kansas City, Mo.

California and Texas have given assurance of delegations numbering about 100 each and from other states encouraging reports are received.

A Little Talk on Soap

Probably there is no other household necessity about which so little is known as soap, and yet there is no article that is put to more varied uses in the home.

We doubt if there is a housekeeper in Jacksonville that would tolerate the use of a dish or utensil washed with yellow, resin filled soap, did she know of the renderings of the slaughter house the fat of cholera bugs and diseased cattle that enter into its manufacture.

Stop one moment and consider that your inner garments are not only washed but boiled in these ingredients and only slightly changed by the action of the caustic potash or lye.

All yellow soaps contain these animal fats as do many white soaps that are filled with tallow grease. Ignorance of the composition of these yellow soaps or with the enlightened inability to procure any other have fostered their sale until now.

Recognizing the demand for a soap that would meet the requirements of the hygienic housekeeper we have placed in our stock and now have on sale in our busy basement, a purely vegetable soap made of nothing but coconut butter, cotton seed oil and borax, containing no vile animal whatsover and as pure, fresh and dainty as the ocean breeze. This soap will lather freely in hot or cold, hard or soft water, will not shrink flannels or woollens, will not fade dyed goods will wash the soiled linens and muslins and send them from the tubclean, white, sweet-smelling and whole some, and yet is as valuable and re-freshing in the toilet and bath as in the laundry.

Floating soaps are made to float by beating air into the stock during the making.

Blo-Re-Mo White Laundry Soap

Does not float and it is all soap, no wind.

To introduce this soap into every home in this city we have procured the services of a demonstrator who will be pleased to tell you all about it and show you samples of the oils it contains. And the price within the reach of all 5c the bar, or six for 25c or $4.00 the box, 100 bars.

Remember the name BLO-RE-MO WHITE LAUNDRY SOAP, the aristocrat of all soaps.

WHY THIS BOY FAILED.

A good many of you boys who read this page are earning your own living, and all the rest of you expect some day to be earning your own living. Then be sure to read this story, from Success, telling why one boy failed to get ahead in his work and is still grubbing away at his old work and old wages:

He watched the clock.
He was always grumbling.
He was always behindhand.
He didn't believe in himself.
His stock excuse was, "I forgot."
He wasn't ready for the next step.
He did not put his heart in his work.
He learned nothing from his blunders.
He felt that he was above his position.
He chose his friends among his inferiors.
He ruined his ability by half doing things.
He did not think it worth while to learn how.
He tried to make "bluff" take the place of ability.
He thought he must take amusement every evening.
He did not learn that the best part of his salary was not in his pay envelope.

Just received an elegant line of nobby duck sailors at the Illinois millinery house.

VALUE OF A SUNNY SOUL.

The world is too full of sadness and sorrow, misery and sickness; it needs more sunshine; it needs cheerful lives which radiate gladness; it needs encouragers who will lift and not bear down, who will encourage, not discourage.

Who can estimate the value of a sunny soul who scatters gladness and good cheer wherever he goes, instead of gloom and sadness? Everybody is attracted to those cheerful faces and sunny lives, and repelled by the gloomy, the morose and the sad. We envy people who radiate cheer wherever they go and fling out gladness from every pore. Money houses and lands look contemptible beside such a disposition. The ability to radiate sunshine is a greater power than beauty, or than mere mental accomplishments.

ENTERTAINED SOCIETY.

The Young Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church was very pleasantly entertained Thursday afternoon by Miss Mabel Withee, at her home on South Clay avenue, at a lawn supper. Thirteen of the members were present, as follows: Misses Carrie Spies, Maude Nesmith, Harriet Story, Sadie Kelley, Ware Sayles, Pearl Williams, Pearl Cannon, Bertha Anderson, Edith Wyoff, Emma Stevens, Anna McGillis, Lily Reese and Mabel Withee.

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women; regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist it will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle in two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. E. W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. box 629, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

READ THIS:

Jacksonville, Ill., Aug. 24, 1901.—For twelve years I have suffered from sweet diabetes and have spent hundreds of dollars with various doctors, with but little benefit. I was recommended to try a bottle of Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, and will cheerfully testify to the public that it did me more good than all things else put together and am altogether another man. I have persuaded many of my friends to try it.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of circuit clerk of Morgan county, subject to the decision of the Republican county convention.

C. L. HAYDEN.
I hereby announce myself a candidate for the nomination for coroner, subject to the decision of the Morgan county Republican convention. F. M. FERGUSON.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the nomination for coroner, subject to the decision of the Morgan county Republican convention. OLIVER MASON.

The action of the council last night in calling an election to decide on a small tax for park purposes was such as to be commended. The remarkable manner in which people have been flocking to Nichols park has been a surprise to even the most sanguine friends of the enterprise. It clearly demonstrates that the people want an outing place and that they like the one that has been prepared for them. It is clear that the voters are with the enterprise and it will be a disappointment if the measure fails. All friends of the people should rally to the work and see that the proposition gets a rousing majority July 12.

FAMILY REUNION

Members of the Hopper Family
Held Annual Gathering at Dunlap Springs Thursday.

The annual reunion and all day picnic of the Hopper families of Morgan county was held at Dunlap Springs Thursday. The day was spent in a most enjoyable manner and the feature of an impromptu program that was arranged was a horse shoe contest between relatives residing in the city and those who are residents of the country precincts. It was a spirited contest and was the cause of a great deal of merriment. The representatives from the city were declared the victors, but bore their honors with becoming modesty.

An annual sheep shearing was usually a feature of the assembling of these families, but for several years it has been abandoned.

At the reunion yesterday the representatives numbered about eighty. Among those who were present were: Hazel Hopper and family, Robert Hunter and family, Charles Hopper and family, James Hopper and family, Richard Hopper and family, and Richard Dodsworth and family.

MISSION PICNIC.

The South Side mission enjoyed a picnic at Maple Grove Thursday afternoon. Games were played and all present had a splendid day. In the evening an elegant picnic supper was served. Among the older ones present were: Mrs. P. W. Harmon, Mrs. J. Redburn, Mrs. J. Swanson, Mrs. F. Reick, Mrs. Arthur, Mrs. Fletcher, Mrs. J. Gibbs, Miss Selma Swanson and infant class and others.

SCIENCE CLUB.

The domestic science department of the Phyllis Wheatley club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. F. W. Dunlap on Anita street, with a fair attendance. An interesting paper on salads was read by Mrs. McCree. The demonstrations were salad and cheese straws by Mrs. McCree and Miss L. Smalley.

KNIGHTS OF TABOR.

At the regular meeting of Evergreen Temple, No. 33, held Thursday night, the following officers were elected:

C. M.—A. J. Jones.
V. M.—Edward Raymie.
C. S.—George Clark.
As. C.—J. W. Raymie.
C. Dm.—F. Wright.
C. O.—Cornelius Herman.
O. F.—A. F. Jones.

BOUGHT RESIDENCE PROPERTY.

William Lusk has purchased of J. Weir Elliott the residence property known as 714 Hardin avenue, for $1,700. Possession to be given July 1.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

W. C. Ledford, who resides on the Springfield road near Salem church, east of the city, was the victim of a pleasant surprise last evening, when a crowd of friends took possession of his home very unexpectedly. The occasion was his fifty-third birthday and the surprise was planned by his estimable wife.

The guests were immediately made welcome and proceeded to enjoy a very merry evening. Elegant refreshments were served.

Those present were as follows: Rev. and Mrs. Nathan English, Mr. and Mrs. George Graff, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barber, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Ledford, Mr. and Mrs. George Hoagland, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Barber, Mr. and Mrs. John Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Phillips, Miss Lily Ledford and Miss Fannie Tinsion. The host was the recipient of many kind words, and at a late hour the party departed, wishing him many happy returns of the day.

DEATH RECORD

WILLIAMS.

Virginius Harvey Williams died at 4:30 Thursday afternoon at his home on South Clay avenue of a complication of diseases. Although he had been ailing for about two years his death came unexpectedly to his relatives and friends.

Mr. Williams was born Nov. 18, 1843, in Madisonville, Ky. He was married to Miss Emily Love in 1870 in Natchez, Miss. His wife and two children, Miss Alice L. and Edmund A., and many friends are left to mourn his loss.

Mr. Williams served during the civil war in the confederate army as a gunner in Company A, Fourth artillery of Louisiana. He came to Illinois in the 70's and to this city in 1899, where he has since resided. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

MUSICAL SOIREE

Given by Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lambert in Honor of Their Guest Mrs. Packard.

One of the most delightful of many functions that have taken place during this month of roses was the musical soiree given Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lambert in honor of their guest, Mrs. Nellie Evans Packard, of Brockton, Mass.

The guest list was small and was limited largely to musicians and persons of decided musical tastes. The evening was one of rare pleasure and Mrs. Packard contributed in a most generous manner to the enjoyment of the company present. Her voice is a beautiful mezzo-soprano, tender, pure and sympathetic, while her technical accomplishment is superb. She is a pupil of the celebrated Madame Marchesi, of Paris; of Signor Franceschetti, of Rome; of Walker, of the Royal academy of music in London, and many other musicians of the highest rank, who speak in unmeasured terms both of her ability as a teacher as well as a singer of exceptional powers. Mrs. Packard conducts a most successful studio in Brockton and is the leader of the choir in the Methodist church, of which Rev. Julian Wadsworth, a brother of Mrs. Lambert, is the pastor.

Others who contributed to the program of the evening were Mrs. Cole, of Winterset, Iowa; Mrs. Louise Short, Miss Phoebe Kreider and Miss Irene Thompson, of this city. The double number by Mrs. Cole gave great pleasure and she certainly has a rich soprano voice, which she uses intelligently and artistically. The violin solo by Miss Irene Thompson was a decided compliment to the ability of the young musician, who gives promise of being a most accomplished artist. Mrs. Short and Miss Kreider are vocalists who are always heard with pleasure, and their solos last evening were greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Helen Bullard was the accompanist of the evening and always serves in that difficult capacity in a most acceptable manner. Miss Mary Thompson was the accompanist for her sister.

At the conclusion of the program a social hour was enjoyed and Mrs. Packard was found to be a lady of engaging manners and great personal as well as vocal charm.

The program for the evening was as follows:

Love Abiding ..... Jules Jordan
Mrs. Short
In Dreaming Alone ..... .50
My Rose ..... Langtry
Winter ..... Gatty
Mrs. Packard
Violin solo, Kujawak, second mazurka ..... Wlenawski
Miss Thompson
Love's Confessing .....
Song of Waiting .....
Mrs. Cole
My Dreams ..... Tost
Miss Kreider
Memory's Garden ..... Guy D'Hardelot
Three Green Bonnets ..... Guy D'Hardelot
Ah! 'Tis a Dream ..... Hawley
Eyes of Blue ..... Speaks
Mrs. Packard
Duet—I Would That My Love ..... Mendelssohn
Mrs. Packard and Mrs. Short.

The greatest curiosity of the 20th century a three legged chicken purchased from Mrs. Samuel Wood by Mr. J. Hermon will be exhibited at the Illinois millinery house for several days. Everybody Welcome to see this remarkable freak.

ENDEAVOR SOCIETY.

The semi-annual election of officers of the Christian Endeavor of the Christian church was held Thursday night in the church parlors. Monday last was the regular time of holding the election, but on account of the disagreeable nature of the weather that evening the meeting was postponed until last night.

THE BIRTH RECORD.

Born to Alex Campbell and wife, of East College avenue, an eight-pound daughter. The Cliss of the Christian church will take note of the future addition to the circle.

Mrs. Annie Lady and daughter were shopping in town yesterday.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

District Convention at Waverly
Was a Splendid Success—Attendance Was Large—Fine Program.

The Jacksonville district Epworth league convention, which closed its eleventh annual session at Waverly Thursday night, was a splendid success. Over 100 delegates were present, quite a contingent of whom were from this city. The program offered special attractions in both its day and evening features. Rev. J. B. Horney, of Mattoon, preached the opening sermon Monday evening. Tuesday evening Dr. Horace Reed, of Decatur, gave his great lecture, "The Battle of the Nations," and on Wednesday evening Dr. W. A. Quinley of Kansas City, an orator of national reputation, lectured on St. Paul.

During the day sessions Dr. G. E. Scrimger gave an eloquent descriptive account of his trip to the Pacific coast, while other principal addresses were given by Miss Olivia Dunlap, Prof. T. R. Hopkins and the Rev. Messrs. Harker, Buck, Wheat, Flagg and McKown. Devotional exercises were conducted by Arthur Swain, Rev. W. S. German and E. A. Pearce. Miss Turnbull, of Carlinville, state superintendent of the Junior league, had charge of an interesting junior's hour, and Miss Turnbull, deaconess from the Chaddock Boys' home, of Quincy, presented the interests of that deserving institution and secured the district pledge of $100 for the support of one boy for one year.

The district pledge of $1,000 for missions was referred to the presiding elder and district cabinet for action. Entertaining musical numbers were presented by the Waverly choir, the Waverly Male quartet and solos by Mrs. Charles Hopper and Miss Spink, and Messrs. Angelo, Schofield, Smedley and Short.

Programs of the state convention, to be held next week at Rockford, were announced.

Stirring pentecostal services were conducted each day by Rev. J. B. Horney.

Ashtand will entertain the convention next year.

Rev. R. A. Hartick, pastor of the Waverly church, whose hospitality and that of the Waverly people was greatly praised, was unanimously re-elected district president for the fifth term. He has given enthusiastic leadership to the work.

The other officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows:

First vice president—E. A. Pearce, Jacksonville.
Second vice president—O. J. Schofield, Jacksonville.
Third vice president—Miss Mabel Short, Greenfield.
Fourth vice president—R. B. Smedley, Waverly.
Corresponding secretary—Miss Olivia G. Dunlap, Jacksonville.
Recording secretary—Miss Anna Pitzer, Athens.
Treasurer—Arthur Swain, Sinclair, Tenn.
Junior superintendent—Miss Laura Scandrett, Rockbridge.
Executive committee—Rev. Messrs. G. E. Scrimger, Jacksonville; R. L. Steed, Ashtand; A. L. T. Ewert, Jacksonville; M. E. Hobart, Chesterfield; W. D. White, Pleasant Plains.
The delegation from this city included the following persons:

Mrs. J. Weir Elliott, Mrs. Charles Hopper, Misses Flora Hall, Etta Pearce, Anna Hopper, Louise Moore, Hazel Glenn, Olivia Dunlap; Prof. T. R. Hopkins, E. A. Pearce and W. J. Lane.

RAN EXCURSION

Colored People of This City Enjoy Annual Outing at Riverside Park.

The colored people of this city ran their annual excursion to Havana Thursday morning. Two well-filled coaches were attached to the regular train leaving here at 7:40 a. m. At noon a splendid picnic dinner was served. Their destination was Riverside park, where a most enjoyable day was passed. A feature of the day was a ball game between Peoria and a team from this city. The contest was spirited, lasting eleven innings, and resulted in a victory for Jacksonville by a score of 4 to 3. The affair was under the management of Ronick Vires.

The line-up of the teams was as follows: Jacksonville—Jackson, p.; Mitchell, c.; P. Brown, ss.; W. Johnson, rf.; Fountain, 3b.; Washington, lb.; Glass, lf.; H. Brown, cf.; Harris, 2b.; Peoria—Burton, p.; Johnson, c.; Holland, ss.; Randtree, lb.; Hayes, 2b.; Brown, 3b.; Yorks, lf.; Kennedy, cf.; Smith, rf.

DEATH OF C. H. CHAPPELL.

C. H. Chappell, former vice president and general manager of the Chicago & Alton railway, who died at his home in Chicago Wednesday morning, was a cousin of A. J. Ward, of this city, and had named a son after the latter gentleman. Funeral services will be held in Chicago this afternoon at 1:30. Hon. William Brown, of this city, a friend of Mr. Chappell and an associate with him while serving as general solicitor for the Alton, has gone to Chicago to serve as a bearer at the funeral.

CITY COUNCIL

CALLED MEETING TO CONSIDER MATTER OF SPECIAL TAX

Decided to Ask Voters to Pass on the Question of a Park Tax July 12th.

The council had one of the most harmonious meetings of the season Thursday night, all being of the same mind regarding the matter of a special tax to maintain the park system of the city.

The council met in called session with all present except Alds. Hildreth and Babb; Mayor Davis in the chair.

The mayor read the call, which was to provide for an election to decide on levying a tax for park purposes and to consider the advisability of building a bridge in Nichols park.

The clerk read an ordinance prepared by the city attorney and provided for a two mill tax to maintain Nichols park.

Ald. Moore—I believe in this matter most heartily, but think the measure should read for the park system, rather than for one special place. There may be some jealousy on the part of those favoring the other parks.

Ald. Cobb—I am of the same opinion as the first speaker and think the measure should be general.

Ald. Johnson—I heartily favor the movement. I think the council should encourage by all means possible all such enterprises.

Ald. Kennedy—What amount will a two mill tax supply?

The mayor—About $5,000.

Ald. Kennedy—That is a good sum for one place, and I think it should be applicable to all.

Ald. Govein—I am of the same opinion as the others and move the words be changed so as to read for the city park system.

The mayor—I am agreed to the sentiment expressed. The people of Jacksonville are in sympathy with the park system. The looks of Central park please all and they approve of what has been done also in Duncan park. Last Sunday I think there were 100 people out there and all the settees, swings and seats were in use and many lying or standing about elsewhere. The people approve heartily of Nichols park also. I was out there yesterday and think there were at least 250 people there then.

Ald. Kennedy—There were 500 there this afternoon and evening.

The mayor—I think now that the park system has been undertaken it will grow right along and in time we shall see the system extend from Maple Grove school house to the pumping works. The commissioners will have the proceeds of the two mill tax if it carries and with it they can do great things. I feel certain the people will not object to the slight tax asked for in the matter. No one can visit Nichols park and see the beginning already made without picturing in his mind a very beautiful place in the near future. With a bridge to get to the south part of the grounds there would be facilities for enjoying one of the most attractive places in the state. There would be room for thousands to go and have a pleasant time. I was out there yesterday and was much enthused over the subject. The pavilion will be a grand place and the park cannot help being a blessing to the people.

S. W. Nichols—Speaking for the Nichols park commission, I can say that they will fully agree with the change in the proposed measure to have it read for the park system. We have no desire to grasp all that the people vote for our own use.

The mayor—There is no provision for judges and clerks in this measure. I think with proper effort we can get the services of these people and polling places free of charge. This is a matter of public spirit. The parks are for the use of everybody and the people should and will be ready to do their part.

Ald. Johnson—I will serve or get some one in my place.

Ald. Vaughn—Speaking for the gentlemen of the Fourth ward, I feel we can promise the services of the judges and clerks without charge.

Ald. Ticknor—I am much in favor of this whole enterprise. The park commission is doing good work and we should be willing to do what we can to encourage it. For the Second ward I think Ald. Govein and Ald. Higgins will agree with me that we will see to that part of the city being taken care of.

Ald. Govein—I certainly agree and am certain there will be no trouble in the matter.

Ald. Higgins—I will do all I can and think we can accomplish it.

Ald. Cobb—For the Third ward, I think Ald. Kennedy and myself can promise it will be looked after free of charge.

Ald. Kennedy—I agree with the gentleman.

Ald. McGinnis—I will speak for the First ward.

The members of the council then met by wards informally and decided on the judges, clerks and voting places and named them for the ordinance, with the understanding that if any one were unwilling to serve a person could be put in his place.

The mayor—I hope to see the day when we can get hold of a piece of ground in the Third ward for a park. I should much like to get the Andras property on South Main street.

Ald. Kennedy—You must not destroy my cow pasture.

The mayor—I wrote Mr. Andras that the city would care for the part of the property contiguous to South Main street, keep the grass cut, some lights in the place and care for it generally, if he would let us use it until he wanted to sell or use it. I have heard nothing from him regarding it yet.

Ald. Kennedy—I think he will consent.

The question of the date of the election came up. It was discussed informally, and finally Tuesday, July 12, was decided on.

Ald. Vaughn, seconded by Ald. Johnson, moved the adoption of the emergency clause, and it carried.

Ald. Vaughn, seconded by Ald. Doonlin, moved the ordinance be adopted. Carried unanimously.

S. W. Nichols—On behalf of the park commission, I desire to thank the worthy mayor and city council for the action they have taken in this matter and for their general attitude toward the enterprise.

Ald. Vaughn—Last winter, when I was wading in snow three feet deep, it struck me that it would be a good thing to have an outing for the overworked city officials and reporters, and I move a committee of five be appointed to make the arrangements for the occasion, select the date and place and provide all entables, etc.

Ald. Kennedy—I think for the Fourth we should have Central park provided with all the swings, seats and the like possible for the benefit of women and children. I hope we are going to have a large crowd that day, and we want to treat them right.

Ald. Higgins—I think there will be a picnic in Duncan park, so we can take no seats from that place.

The mayor—A short time since Dr. Morey approached me and asked for permission to have Sunday evening meetings in the park during the summer. All such things are to be desired and we should have more seats provided. We might buy 20 chairs and store them under the pavilion when not needed. I am in favor of granting the use of the park to both political parties, as it has been given to a street fair, which is certainly an enterprise no better. If we could buy a lot of seats it would be better all round. The chairs could be put out of the way when not in use, while long, heavy planks generally used for such things stay out all the time and kill the grass. I favor asking the parties to buy 200 chairs and letting us use them if we wish and care for them meanwhile and in return giving both parties the right to use the park for all political meetings they wish.

Ald. Kennedy—We might borrow some swings and put them up with signs on them for the dealers.

Ald. Ticknor—I would like to know when we are to have the park concert, which has been promised.

After considerable informal discussion it was decided to have the park concert Thursday, June 30.

The mayor announced as the committee to arrange for the outing Alds. Vaughn, Ticknor, Higgins, Johnson and Moore.

The members of the party are to be the mayor, city clerk, aldermen, attorney, engineer and reporters; Monday next to be the day.

Adjourned.

TEACHERS ENTERTAINED.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Campbell were the hosts Thursday afternoon of the teaching force of the Franklin schools. A very pleasant afternoon was spent, at the close of which supper was served the guests. With the coming of night the guests dispersed with many expressions of kind regard and appreciation of the hospitality of their hosts.

DYSPEPSIA OF WOMEN

Requires Treatment Which Acts in Harmony with the Female System.

A great many women suffer with a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not seem to yield to ordinary medical treatment. While the symptoms seem to be similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines universally prescribed do not seem to restore the patient's normal condition.

Mrs. Pinkham claims that there is a kind of dyspepsia that is caused by derangement of the female organism, and which while it causes disturbance similar to ordinary indigestion cannot be relieved without a medicine which not only acts as a stomach tonic, but has peculiar utero-tonic effects as well; in other words, a derangement of the female organs may have such a disturbing effect upon a woman's whole system as to cause serious indigestion and dyspepsia, and it cannot be relieved without curing the original cause of the trouble, which seems to find its source in the pelvic organs. As proof of this theory, we call attention to the letters from Mrs. Maggie Wright and Mrs. Emma Sawyer, who were completely cured by the use of

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For two years I suffered more or less with dyspepsia which so degenerated my entire system that I was unfit to properly attend to my daily duties. I felt weak and nervous, and nothing I ate tasted good or felt comfortable in my stomach. I tried several dyspepsia cures, but nothing seemed to help me permanently. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, and was happily surprised to find that it acted like a fine tonic, and in a few days I began to enjoy and properly digest my food. My recovery was rapid, and in five weeks I was a different woman. Seven bottles completely cured me, and a dozen or more of my friends have used it since."—Mrs. MAGGIE WRIGHT, 12 Van Voorhis St., Brooklyn, N.Y.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness.
Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Many women whose letters we print were utterly discouraged, and life lacked all joy to them when they wrote Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., without charge of any kind. They received advice which made them strong, useful women again.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I will write and let you know how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me. I cannot express the terrible suffering I have had to endure. I was taken last May with nervous prostration, also had female trouble, liver, stomach, kidney and bladder trouble. I was in a terrible condition.

"The doctor attended me for a year, but I kept getting worse. I got so I was not able to do any work. Was confined to my bed most of the time, and thought I would never be able to do anything. People thought I would not live. I decided to try your medicine. I have taken twelve bottles of Vegetable Compound and cannot praise it too highly, for I know it will do all and even more than it is recommended to do.

"I will tell every suffering woman about your medicine and urge them to try it."—Mrs. EMMA SAWYER, Conyers, Ga.

HINTS FOR FARMERS

Food For Young Chickens.

The question of food for the newly hatched chicks is an important one in order that the young fowls may be started right. Believing that a dry food, unmixed with water, is best, I have for two seasons fed our young chickens a bread made of gluten feed, says Mr. Sparran in American Agriculturist. On bake days part of the sponge set for the white bread of the family is used for the chicken bread, and with this and the gluten feed are mixed a little salt, sugar and, when convenient, small scraps of meat, or the drainings from frying pan may be added.

The mixture is stiffened to a batter, poured into a pan and set to rise, after which it is carefully tended in the oven, like the family baking. The little chickens like this bread and grow and thrive upon it. Where gluten cannot be obtained cornmeal may be substituted, with good results.

Use of the Disk Plow.

That the disk will ever take the place of the drag plow I am not willing to admit, for nothing has been invented that will do just what the drag plow does, says a Rural New Yorker correspondent. The disk will not turn over, or, rather, it will turn it over and over, tipping up long, snaky ribbons, which it will throw at times three feet from the furrow. But for plowing under stubble and weeds that do not form sod there is nothing more economical, more easily handled and more quickly hitched to than the disk plow. It does entirely away with the terrors of plowing, and Professor Roberts' "hot plowshares" need no longer be an idealistic phrase, the disk doing the work of the share so much more easily. Besides, it is reversible, doing away also with dead and back furrows.

Buying Stock Swine.

Never buy an animal simply because he has a pedigree and because he is on sale at a low price, says American Cultivator. Pedigree alone does not constitute merit, for there are animals with pedigrees a foot long which would ruin any herd into which they were introduced. The next class, the farmer's pig, is that which is not good enough for the breeder of high class stock. This animal may be a bit coarse and not up to standard, but he is a good grower or a prolific sower, which the pork producer will be glad to have. The next kind includes the culls, runts and inferior specimens, which should be turned into butcher's meat as soon as possible. Under no circumstances whatever should they be used as breeders.

Sheep on the Farm.

The truth is that the presence of a flock of sheep on a farm that appears to be a certificate of the ability and good character of the farmer, not only as such, but as a man as well. This criterion has such a natural coincidence that it strikes even the inexperienced passerby, as it did a well known missionary, a good man who did a vast amount of good in the early days and who used to say that when traveling on a mission he would always stop if possible with a farmer overnight who had a well conditioned flock of sheep in his fields, because he would find a good natured, kindly disposed host. — American Sheep Breeder.

Angora Goats in Maine.

Director Woods of the Maine experiment station says that Angora goats have proved effective in clearing up the underbrush in woodland covered with birch or evergreen. They will likely kill other varieties except very large trees. They will clear out bushes and waste growth in pastures in preference even to the grasses.

The flesh has a flavor between that of lamb and venison. The carcasses are small, and there is no market in the west for the flesh.

Rape as a Fertilizer Crop.

There is no forage crop the farmer can grow, whether he is a breeder or feeder of live stock, that will give him more feed per acre at less cost and on which all descriptions of stock will do better than a few acres of rape. Rape belongs to the cabbage family, has the ability to grow quickly, start growth again when eaten down to the stalks and to produce an enormous amount of forage upon which hogs, sheep and cattle grow and put on flesh quickly. — Farm and Live Stock Journal.

The Spraying of Weeds.

The destruction of weeds by means of spraying seems to be a possibility of the future, says New York Farmer. Last year those who used five pounds of blue vitriol in a hundred gallons of water were quite successful in killing wild mustard, spraying when the plants were just before the stalks began to shoot up. It would appear that six to eight pounds of vitriol to a hundred gallons of water would be still more effective.

Poultry Manure For Onions.

Onions, and there is no danger of getting too much of it. It is probably best applied as a top dressing after the seed has been sown. — American Agriculturist.

The Brood Sow.

The brood sow should receive carefully selected food containing the full maximum of nutritiveness and given up to the full limit of her digestive powers. — Farmer's Advocate.

NOTICE.

QUICK WORK IN EL PASO.

"They do things in a neat and workmanlike manner in El Paso," said a man who had been traveling in the southwest. "I was on a train coming in from Mexico when a passenger in the car I was in got into a row with a negro porter. The porter hit the passenger over the head with a poker, and the passenger took out his revolver and shot the porter six times. We took the porter off the station at El Paso, but he died before the ambulance came. I was told to be at the inquest at 10 a. m. next day to testify.

"My watch was wrong, or something happened, and I didn't get to the inquest until seven minutes past 10. As I was going in I met the officials coming out.

"Too late," they said. "He was acquitted and discharged five minutes ago." — New York Tribune.

What Causes Fires.

The annual losses by fire in the United States, which have averaged as high as $100,000,000 a year at certain periods, were attributed during a single year to the following causes, the number of fires from each cause being given: Incendiarism, 1,927; defective flues, 1,309; matches, 636; explosions (of lamps, etc.), 430; stoves, 429; lightning, 369; spontaneous combustion, 326; prairie and forest fires, 280; lamp and lantern accidents (other than explosions), 238; locomotive sparks, 211; cigar stubs and pipes, 203; friction, 179; gas jets, 176; engines and boilers, 150; furnaces, 135, and from firecrackers, 105. — Harper's Weekly.

A Parisian Duel.

An extraordinary duel has just been fought in Paris between two youths named Maltier and Lamort. The arrangement was that Maltier was to stand with a drawn sword, while Lamort, 100 yards away and armed with a knife, mowed him bicycle. At the word the latter was to ride at his best speed at his adversary. The combat took place in the Rue de la Convention, and Lamort rode at breakneck speed and succeeded in knocking down his opponent, but at the same time fell himself. The swordsman received a serious cut on the head from a pedal, while the cyclist is suffering from two severe cuts from the sword.

KOREA'S DARK FUTURE.

Domination of Any Nation Can Hardly Make Conditions Worse.

Unhappy Korea is having a hard time between the conflicting ambitions of powerful Russia and Japan. For the Koreans it is a case of "under which king, Bezonian?" Too weak to be independent and with subjugation to a foreign nation inevitable, the outlook is not cheering.

Still, the future under either Japanese or Russian domination can hardly be worse than the present. The government lacks the moral fiber needed at such a critical time, and official corruption is well nigh absolute. The people are taxed beyond all reason. Any man suspected of having property is in danger of being thrown into a filthy prison on some trumped up charge and held or perhaps tortured until he disgorge. Officers are sold to the highest bidder or given to dissipated favorites, who divide the proceeds. The courts give no redress, for the plunderer himself is usually both judge and jury. So rotten is the entire system that one marvels that the nation has not fallen to pieces before this. Only the stolid apathy of the Asiatic and the rival claims of foreign powers have held it together at all.

The financial problem is as bad as the political. Oppression and robbery destroy all incentive to accumulate property. A man has no motive to toil when he knows that an additional ox or a better house would probably simply result in a "squeeze" from some lynx eyed potentate. So he raises only a little rice and devotes the remainder of his time to resting. — From Rev. Arthur Judson Brown's "Unhappy Korea" in Century.

Two Hundred Years Ago.

Only by trying seriously to understand conditions of 200 years ago may we bring ourselves to realize the advance the country and the world have made in the two centuries a newspaper press has existed in America. In April, 1704, was founded the first American newspaper which succeeded in establishing itself, the Boston News Letter. Popular education, freedom of speech, religious toleration and government by the people were then unknown in the colonies; to worship according to the rites of the Catholic church was a capital offense in Massachusetts; none but members of established churches could hold office; it was a criminal act for any person to ride or children to play on Sunday; men and women were obliged to confess before congregations, and any one who did not attend church could be fined, according to law. — Boston Globe.

On the first indication of kidney trouble, stop it by taking Foley's Kidney Cure. Sold by J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide Is in Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair wigors may look nice, and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair? No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use." It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease. Sold by leading druggists. Send the stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SPECIAL TAXATION NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given to all persons interested that the city council of the city of Jacksonville, having ordained that a brick street pavement be constructed on West Lafayette avenue in the city of Jacksonville, beginning at the west line of Church street and running thence west to the center of Finley street, the ordinance for the same being on file in the office of the city clerk, and have applied to the county court of Morgan county for an assessment of the costs of said improvement, according to benefits, and an assessment therefor having been made and returned to said court, the final hearing thereon will be had on the 24 day of July, A. D. 1904, or as soon thereafter as the business of the court will permit. All persons desiring may file objections in said court before said day and may appear on the hearing and make their defense.

Said special tax shall be divided into ten installments, which installments shall all be equal in amount, except that all fractional installments shall be added to the first, and shall be due and payable on the 24 day of January next after completion and acceptance of the work, and the second installment one year thereafter, and so on annually until all are paid. All installments, except the first, shall bear interest at the rate of 5 per cent per annum.

J. J. Reece,

Commissioner.

IF YOU HAVE DYSPEPSIA READ THIS.

The old way of taking pepsin, bismuth, etc., to cure dyspepsia is all wrong. They may be put up in tablets or in liquids, the result is just the same. The object is to create artificial digestion, but this does not make a cure. Stop taking the pepsin, etc., and have your dyspepsia or indigestion back again. People use cocaine or opium for nervous troubles and sick headache, it does not cure. Stop taking the drug and the pain and distress return. The only Common Sense Method is to drive out of the system the cause of dyspepsia and sick headache by cleaning the stomach and bowels and at the same time using a medicine that will act upon the liver. This forces through the glands of the stomach the digestive fluid that nature intended. In this way you cure dyspepsia. The medicine that cures dyspepsia by this method is called Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills. Druggists sell these pills at 25c a box. It only takes one pill for a dose. For sale by Lee P. Alcott.

TEN YEARS IN BED.

R. A. Gray, J. P., Oakville, Ind., writes: "For ten years I was confined to my bed with disease of my kidneys. It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. I consulted the very best medical skill available, but could get no relief until Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me. It has been a Godsend to me." Sold by J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

SUED BY HIS DOCTOR.

"A doctor has sued me for $12.50, which I claimed was excessive for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White, of Coachella, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used, as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails. Sold by all leading druggists.

NINE MILLION ACRES.

Government Lands for Homesteaders.

In western Nebraska near the Union-Pacific railroad in section lots of 400 acres each, for almost nothing. The salubrity of these lands is something remarkable. Distance from railroad is three to thirty miles. There will be a grand rush of homesteaders. This is the last distribution of free homes the United States government will ever make in Nebraska. Write for pamphlet telling how the lands can be acquired, when entry should be made and other information. Free on application to any Union-Pacific agent, or J. H. Lothrop, G. FAMILY ARRESTED

Shoplifters Who Have Baffled Officers for a Year at Last Within the Meshes of the Law.

Springfield, June 23.—In the arrest yesterday of Mrs. Kate Schaefer, her son Otto and daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Ritter, the authorities believe they have landed shoplifters whose extensive peculations have baffled the officers for over a year. On warrants sworn out by Hal M. Smith, wholesale notion merchant, the Schaefer residence was searched yesterday and vast stores of goods of all sorts were found, the total value amounting to thousands. After a collapse Mrs. Schaefer confessed to many thefts. The police to night are busy hauling goods to the police station and sorting and listing the same, preparatory to identification by local merchants

ILL UNTO DEATH

Benjamin F. Brown of This City Is Joined in Marriage to Mrs. Emma Rucker Who Has Cared for Him.

Benjamin F. Brown, of 200 East College avenue, was united in marriage Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock to Mrs. Emma Rucker under very unusual circumstances. Mr. Brown, who is 74 years of age, has been in failing health, due to tuberculosis, for a number of years, and realizing that he was rapidly nearing his end, he sent for Esquire Henderson to enlist his services in drawing up his will. He has no relatives and upon being asked to whom he desired to leave his property, replied that he would leave it to his nurse, Mrs. Emma Rucker, who has so faithfully cared for him in his enfeebled condition.

Thinking that the marriage of the patient and nurse might prevent future complications, Mr. Henderson suggested this expedient to Mr. Brown. The latter was willing and Mrs. Rucker also agreed, so the license was secured and the marriage ceremony performed, the aged groom being practically at the point of death.

Benjamin F. Brown was formerly for many years one of the active business men of this city, being engaged in the insurance business, with his office at one time in the Hoffman building. The progress of his malady rendered him unfit for his business a number of years ago, and since that time he has borne the burden of life with great fortitude. His act of thoughtfulness in providing for the woman who has faithfully cared for him is a good index of the character of the man.

AT WESTMINSTER CHURCH.
An all day sewing was held in the parlors of Westminster church Thursday in honor of Mrs. John Lamb, who will sail in the fall for the mission fields of the Philippine islands. A large number of ladies were present and took luncheon at the church. While the ladies were assisting one of the important benevolent branches of the church work they spent a most delightful social time together and the occasion was one of success in many ways.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

INQUESTS INTO DISASTER.
New York, June 23.—Much of the testimony given at the inquest to day into the Slocum disaster went to show that the life preservers on the steamer were practically useless. At least half a dozen witnesses described how difficult the life preservers were to get at and how they fell to pieces at critical times.

Captain Van Schich was brought into the court room on a stretcher. He apparently was suffering greatly, but expressed willingness to undergo examination by the coroner. He was ordered back to the hospital, however, and his examination postponed until next week.

The hull of the Slocum was raised to day and a partial exploration made, but no bodies found. Twenty-four additional bodies were recovered to day, bringing the total known dead up to 97.

CELEBRATE AT OYSTER BAY.
Oyster Bay, L. I., June 23.—When the news of the nomination of President Roosevelt reached this village this afternoon a salute of twenty-one guns was fired and to night there was a display of fireworks and many residences were illuminated.

MATRIMONIAL

PAULKNER-CASTEEL.

Thursday morning Louis Faulkner and Miss Laura B. Casteel were united in marriage by Squire Reid. The groom is a grandson of the veteran engineer, Joel Baker, and son of Mr. Baker's daughter, Mrs. Gussie Faulkner. His father, stepfather and grandfather were all railroad men and it is natural that he should be one also and so he is, and is said to be an industrious young man. The bride is a so an excellent young woman and the union will doubtless have a pleasant journey through life.

SPAENHOWER-ROACH.

Allen Spaenhower and Miss Mattie Roach, both of Pisgah, were married Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Century parsonage by Rev. A. L. T. Ewert, in the presence of only immediate friends.

They will reside near Pisgah, where the groom has already provided a neatly furnished home.

WAS INNOCENT.

Helena, Mont., June 23.—Governor Toole today pardoned William Walton, convicted twenty years ago of the murder of John Edwards near Deer Lodge and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. The pardon is the result of a confession of William Miles at Kansas City June 13, when he admitted having killed Edwards. The latter was a brakeman on a train conveying a circus through this state and the murder was committed while Miles was stealing a ride on the train. A few months after the murder Walton was arrested to Minneapolis, where he admitted the crime. Since then he has shown signs of insanity and it is now believed he was insane when he made the confession. Walton is an old man and as he still seems to be mentally irresponsible he may be confined in an asylum for the insane. Miles has been released by the Kansas City police with the consent of the Montana authorities.

Cincinnati, June 23.—Seth Ellis, at one time Union Reform candidate for president and master of the national and Ohio Granges, fell from a tree on his farm at Waynesville and died to day.

STANDARD BEARERS

vision which the American heart so loves and which you have met again to decorate and recognize. His qualities do not need to be retold, for no man in this exalted place since Lincoln has been better known in every household in the land. He is not conservative, if conservatism means waiting till it is too late. He is not wise, if wisdom is to count a thing a hundred times when once will do. There is no regret so keen, in man or country, as that which follows an opportunity unimpaired. Fortune favors with high and rapid wing and whoever brings it down must shoot with accuracy and speed. Only the man with steady eye and nerve and the courage to pull the trigger brings the largest opportunities to the ground. He does not always listen while all the eagles speak, but every day at night he beholds some record which if not complete has been at least pursued with conscience and integrity. He is no slender flower waving in the wind, but that heroic fibre which is best nurtured by the mountains and the snow. He spends little time in review, for that he knows can be done by the schools. A statesman grappling with the living problems of the hour, he gropes but little in the past. He believes in going ahead. He believes that in shaping the destinies of this great republic, hope is a higher impulse than regret. He believes that preparation for future triumphs is a more important duty than an inventory of past mistakes. A profound student of history, he is to day the greatest history maker in the world. With the instincts of the scholar, he is yet forced from the scholar's pursuits by those superb qualities which fit him to the last degree for these great world currents rushing past with larger volume and more portentous aspect than for many years before. The fate of nations is still decided by their wars. You may talk of orderly tribunals and learned referees, you may sing in your schools the gentle praises of the quiet life; you may strike from your books the last note of every martial anthem, and yet out in the smoke and thunder will always be the grand old camp of the silent, right, returned face! Men may prophesy and women pray, but peace will come here to abide forever on this earth only when the claims of childhood are the accepted charge to guide the destinies of men. Events are numberless and mighty and no man can tell which way runs around the world. The nation harking to day in the quiet of the study and to morrow writhing in the tolls of war. This is the time when great figures must be kept in front. If the pressure is great the material is hard to find, but this is sure. Whether we wish it or not, America is abroad in this world. Her interests are in every street, her name is on every tongue. Those interests so sacred and stupendous should be trusted only to the care of those whose power, skill and courage have been tested and approved. And in the man whom you will choose, the highest sense of every nation in the world beholds a man who typifies as no other living American does, the spirit and the purposes of the twentieth century. He does not claim to be the Solomon of his time. There are many things he may not know, but this is sure, that above all things else he stands for progress, courage and fair play, which are the synonyms of the American name. There are times when great fitness is hardly less than destiny, when the elements so come together that they select the agent they will use. Events sometimes select the strongest man, as lightning goes down the highest rod. And so with these events which for many months with unerring sight have led you to a single name which I am chosen only to pronounce: Gentlemen, I nominate for president of the United States the highest living type of the youth, the vigor and the promise of a great country and a great age, Theodore Roosevelt of New York.

DOLLIVER'S SPEECH.

Dolliver began by comparing this convention with its lack of noise and declamation, flying banners and shouting with previous conventions where there demonstrations were in evidence, and said previous conventions had met to settle the claims of rival chieftains. "We meet to record the judgment of the Republican millions of the United States who have concluded we have one of the greatest presidents since Washington."

The speaker then paid a tribute to the memory of Lincoln, Blaine, McKinley, Dingley, Reed, Hanna and Quay and eulogized the career of Roosevelt in an eloquent manner. Continuing he said: "We stand at the beginning of a new era, and, while the Republican party leans upon the counsel of its old leaders it has not hesitated to summon to the responsibility of public life young men who have been trained under their guidance to take up the burden which they were ready to lay down and finish the work which comes to them as an inheritance of patriotism and duty. That is significant of the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt. That is the explanation of the call which has been made by the party without a dissenting vote upon Charles W. Fairbanks to stand by the side of the president in guidance and leadership of the Republican party."

"While he has not sought to constrain the judgment of the convention directly or indirectly, he has kept himself free from affectation which undervalues the dignity of the second office in the gift of the American people, and I do not doubt his heart has been touched by the voluntary expression of universal good will which has already chosen one of the standard bearers of the Republican party."

"The office has sought the man and he will bring to the office the commanding personality of a statesman equal to any of the great responsibilities which belong to our public affairs. Leader of the senate and champion of all great policies which constitute the inviolable record of the Republican party during the last ten years, his name will become a tower of strength to our cause, not only in his own state, but everywhere throughout the country. Quiet, undemonstrative popular opinion which has given the Republican party a platform upon which all Republicans can stand, with no dissenting voice here or anywhere, has long since anticipated the action of the convention in adding to the national ticket the name of Fairbanks. Take pleasure in presenting his name, honored everywhere through out the United States, as our candidate for vice president."

Gibraltar, June 23.—The American battleship Missouri has arrived here from Hampton road.

SUIT FOR MILLIONS

Summons Served on Senator Platt and J. P. Underwood by Chicago Attorney.

Chicago, June 23.—United States Senator Platt of New York and J. Platt Underwood, of Chicago, were made defendants in a $3,000,000 damage suit filed here to day by James Donovan, of Chicago, an attorney, who is the surviving member of the lumber firm of Donovan & Co., a corporation doing business in Wisconsin and Michigan. Donovan asserts that Platt and Underwood, who are officials of the Togo Manufacturing company, cut $3,000,000 worth of timber from Donovan's lands in Wisconsin and Michigan when they had no title to the land.

Donovan and a deputy sheriff went to the Coliseum, where the Republican convention was in session, to serve a summons on Senator Platt. Meantime Platt had heard of the proceedings and had left for his hotel before the sheriff and Donovan arrived at the Coliseum. The two returned to the Auditorium hotel, where after an hour's wait they gained admittance to Platt's room and the summons was served.

The timber was located on tracts of land in Lincoln, Langlade, Forest and Vilas counties, Wisconsin, and Montcalm, Lake, Osego and Newaygo counties, Michigan. Donovan's partner, Baker, whose heirs are co-plaintiffs in the suit, died in New York ten years ago. It was three or four years after Baker's death that the alleged fraud by which Baker's widow and children are declared to have suffered was discovered.

FAIRBANKS' MOTHER.

Springfield, Ohio, June 23.—The mother of Senator Fairbanks, Mrs. Mary Adelaide Fairbanks, expressed the opinion that her son would have preferred to remain senator instead of becoming the nominee for vice president. However, she said "she was very proud that he should have been nominated, and particularly since there was such a strong demand for him that he could hardly do otherwise than accept."

FIRE LOSSES.

Shawneetown, Ill., June 23.—Four dwellings and seven stores were burned to day. Among the structures burned was the Sexton building, in which General Lafayette was entertained when he visited here in 1825. The loss will not exceed $20,000.

ST. LOUIS TRAGEDY.

St. Louis, June 23.—Nelson P. Benson, of Kansas City, shot and fatally wounded Miss Mary Dove in a hotel here to day and then killed himself. The cause of the tragedy was not stated.

Kansas City, June 23.—The Benson family say that the woman shot by him in St. Louis was Mrs. Mary Duff, of Winchester, Ill.
